PRESS RELEASE September 20, 2011

On Thursday, September 8, 2011, at 10:46am, the resident at 10412 Johnnycake Ridge Road reported a burglary. The resident stated that at 10:35 hours on the above date she returned home and observed a female walking away from the rear porch of her residence. The resident exited her home and confronted the female as she walked towards neighbors home. The female stated that her vehicle became disabled and that she was just walking through her property to get help. The resident agreed to give this female a ride to area of Old Johnnycake and Johnnycake Ridge Road.

Upon returning to her home discovered that person(s) unknown had entered her home through rear door (porch) and removed a large jar of change from the home. The female is described as Hispanic, early 40's, 5'4" and weighing approx. 160 lbs. The Sheriff's Office would remind our residents to call when they discover person(s) near rear entries of their home. This case still under investigation.
